

About Kristopher Harman

Kristopher Harman joined Woodbine's Phoenix office as a project manager in 2008 and was promoted to vice president in 2014. In his current role, Kristopher leads Woodbine's entitlement and contract negotiation efforts, focusing on project acquisition and aggregating the information that drives the decision-making process for internal and external investment committees, as well as negotiating and coordinating sales and leasing transaction activities. His attention to detail and expertise have played a key role in the success of acquisition, disposition and development of various Woodbine projects across the United States, including: The Sentinel Hotel in Portland, Oregon; The Old No. 77 Hotel in New Orleans; AC Hotel Irvine in Irvine, California; The Plaza Lofts at Kierland Commons in Phoenix/Scottsdale; AC Hotel Tempe in Tempe, Arizona; and Mountain Shadows Resort in Paradise Valley, Arizona.

Before joining Woodbine, Kristopher worked as a real estate attorney at Fennemore Craig and as an officer for an Arizona-based master-planned community developer. He is an active member of the Urban Land Institute Recreational Development Council and is also involved with Valley Partnership, the State Bar of Arizona and the Maricopa County Volunteer Lawyers Program.

A native Arizonan whose family owned a citrus farm, Kristopher earned his bachelor's degree from Northern Arizona University and his MBA and law degrees from The University of Arizona. Outside of the office, he enjoys the great outdoors, travel, photography and spending time with his three children.
